OCAD University, Room 190, 100 McCaul Street, Toronto, Ontario

This is a wheelchair accessible space

Subway

- Line 1: Saint Patrick Station is the closest accessible subway stop. From Saint Patrick Station, head west along Dundas Street towards McCaul Street. At McCaul Street, make a left (heading south). 100 McCaul Street will be on your right.

I'm coming from the West End

- Subway Line 2: Get off at Saint George Station, transfer to Subway Line 1 heading southbound towards Union Station. Get off at Saint Patrick Station. From Saint Patrick Station, head west along Dundas Street towards McCaul Street. At McCaul Street, make a left (heading south). 100 McCaul Street will be on your right.
- 505 Dundas Streetcar: Get off at the McCaul Street stop. Head south along McCaul Street. 100 McCaul Street will be on your right.
- 501 Queen Streetcar: Get off at the John Street stop. Head east along Queen Street towards McCaul Street. At McCaul Street, make a left (heading north). 100 McCaul Street will be on your left.

I'm coming from the East End

- 501 Queen Streetcar: Get off at the Saint Patrick Street stop. Head west along Queen Street towards McCaul Street. At McCaul Street, make a right (heading north). 100 McCaul Street will be on your left.
- 505 Dundas Streetcar: Get off at the McCaul Street stop. Head south along McCaul Street. 100 McCaul Street will be on your right.

Entering the building

The entrance to 100 McCaul Street is set down from street level. There is a set of stairs on the north side of the doors or a ramp on the south side of the doors. There are push buttons to open the doors.

Once you are inside the building, you should be in a large open foyer area with a bright yellow spiral staircase. Head to your left, following signs for Room 190, towards a smaller lobby area with two bright yellow pillars. This is where the first few performances are being held, and also where to access the entrance for Room 190.

Bathrooms

There are three bathrooms connected to the lobby areas: a “Men’s” bathroom, a “Women’s” bathroom, and a “Universal” accessible bathroom. The accessible bathroom is located down a short hallway to the left of the bright yellow double doors at the back of the lobby area. It is wheelchair accessible and has an adult changing station.

Other Information

There is a water fountain and a water bottle filling station in the lobby area, and there are several hand sanitizer stations.

Some seating (chairs and benches) is available in the lobby space. There are several ground-level seats and areas to park wheelchairs in the auditorium (Room 190).